

Measures for a Livable Corridor

Making Stone Avenue a Better Place to Live and Work through

- Pedestrian, Bicycle, Bus, & Traffic Improvements •
 - Streetscape Enhancements •
 - Landscaping •
 - Economic Development •
- Compatible New Building, Adaptive Reuse, & Historic Preservation •

Study Participants

Study Sponsored By

A multidisciplinary City of Tucson Team led by the

Tucson Department of Transportation
Janice A. Miller, Project Manager
Comprehensive Planning Task Force

in cooperation with the

City Manager's Special Projects Division
Economic Development
Planning Department
Community Services
Development Services
Sun Tran
Tucson/Pima Arts Council
Ward Office 1 (Councilmember Jose Ibarra)
Valerie Vidal, Aide Representative
Ward Office 3 (Councilmember Jerry Anderson)
Frank Soltys, Aide Representative
Ward Office 6 (Councilmember Fred Ronstadt)
Michael Guymon, Aide Representative

Study Guided By

The Stone Avenue Citizen Task Force

Amphitheater Neighborhood Assoc. - Mark Aubrey
Balboa Heights Neighborhood Assoc. - N. Jane Baker
Dunbar/Spring Neighborhood Assoc. -
Jonathan Crowe (Co-chair)
Feldman's Neighborhood Assoc. - Carolyn Campbell
Grant Road Neighborhood Assoc. - Joseph La Mantia
Keeling Neighborhood Assoc. - Sally Day (Co-chair)
Lumberlost Neighborhood Assoc. - Cazlin Robbins
Ocotillo/Oracle Neighborhood Assoc. - Newell Bradley
West University Neighborhood Assoc. - Sarah Evans
Member-at-Large - Grant McCormick
Stone Avenue Business Owners - John McKinley,
Paul Martinez, Betty Jo Grygutis, Dan Peterson
Citizens Transportation Advisory Committee -
Diahn Swartz, Joe Weidman
Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce - Tim Healy
Pima Community College, Downtown Campus - Bob Earl
Tucson Black Chamber of Commerce - Michael Butler
Tucson Urban League - Elizabeth Hightower

Also involved:

Amphitheater School District, Bicycle Advisory Committee,
Citizens Downtown Oversight Committee, Tucson Arts
District

Note: Task Force members volunteered more than 750 hours (approx. 19 work weeks) to participate in meetings and other activities that led to the formulation of the recommendations presented in these Study Cards.

Consultant Services Provided By

A multidisciplinary team led by

Parsons Brinckerhoff, project coordination, transportation planning, civil engineering, & public involvement
Rebecca R. Ruopp, Project Manager

with

Dr. Barbara Becker, economic development
Curt Lueck & Associates - traffic analysis & alternative transportation
Bob Vint & Associates - urban design, historic preservation, & public art
TMHS Associates - streetscape & landscape design
Kaneen Advertising & Public Relations - media relations & study card production

Special thanks to the Flamingo Hotel (Travelodge)

on North Stone Avenue for hosting the Citizen Task Force meetings.

Have questions about the study results?
Contact the City of Tucson
Comprehensive Planning Task Force
at 791-4505.